MY STORY

Supporting leaders and teams to step up to their full potential

I'm Amanda Cullen.

I worked as a consultant in the pensions industry for over 30 years, and was a partner in a leading consultancy for 10 years. In both these roles, I advised clients, managed large teams and led business units.

For many years I was a coach and mentor in the corporate world. Given my interest in this, it was a natural progression to obtain formal coaching qualifications and establish my own coaching business.

TESTIMONIAL

"I had written the content for my new website but wanted it to be reviewed by someone with a fresh perspective and an eye for how it would come across to potential clients seeing it for the first time. Fiona did this magnificently. She didn't try to change my message or style, but she made it crisper, clearer and more compelling - oh and she tidied up any typos or grammatical errors that had crept in too! If you want someone to take your words and make them better, Fiona is the ideal person for the job!"
