TESTIMONIAL

"I approached Fiona Mocatta when we needed content for our new website and for a new brochure. Fiona responded quickly to our enquiry and listened carefully to our brief. She is a no nonsense professional who was able to run with our assignment and did not require close supervision. Fiona's copy met our requirements of keeping a relatively dry subject light but informative. She met all the deadlines we set her and was always available to respond to any queries that we may have had. It was a pleasure working with her".
